National Secretary William J. Dillon, of the American Filint Glass Workers' Union, says in his last quarterly report that the organization is in excellent condition, and that there is a decided improvement in its finances. The excess of receipts over expenses was $12,312.83, and the total fund is considerably over $100,000. The total membership is 7,401, of whom 532 are unemployed and 159 are locked-out. The number of newly initiated members is 113, and 715 were admitted by card; only seventeen had to be suspended for non-payment of dues. The Journeymen Tailors' Protective and Benevolent Union has caused an inspection of Emery's strike shop, and it was reported at this week's meeting of the union that the factory inspectors found that the sanitary and factory laws are being violated by Boss Emery. The 50 cents assessment for the National union was indorsed by a vote of 616 against 357. The union list now comprises fifty-eight shops that can be recommended to the public. The death is announced of Members P. O. Weil and Joseph Mender.

James A. Wright, Master Workman, and Sea H. Leobern Paymin Series.

James A. Wright, Master Workman, and Sam H. Jacobson, Recording Secretary of National Trades Assembly 23, garment-workers, have published a statement explaining the position taken by their organization during the recent difficulty of the United Garment-Workers, A. F. of L., with the Clothing Manufacturers' Association of this city. They say that both organizations had conferences with the bosses before the strike, refusing to accept the terms of the Association. But, while the Knights made no demand of discrimination against the Federation men, the latter insisted that Knights of Labor should not be employed, although they expected the latter to assist them in fighting the Federa-tion's battle. Then the strike and lock-out took place, which terminated in the Federation men accepting the original agreement offered them by the bosses on March 23, leaving the Knights of Labor undisturbed. The latter disclaim any act of disloyalty towards the members of the Federation.
